

Susan Point: Coast Salish Artist

Susan began making limited edition prints on her kitchen table in while working as a legal secretary. She received several early commissions, which. Items 1 - 30 of 63 Country/Region: Northwest Coast Tribe: Coast Salish Susan A. Point is a Coast Salish artist from Musqueam, a First Nation in Vancouver, British Columbia. In 1981, she exhibited in New Visions: Serigraphs by Susan Point, Coast Salish Artist, which was organized by the Museum of Anthropology, UBC. Her work has . Susan Point is more than a catalyst for the revival of Coast Salish Native art, her work In the '80s, Susan Point began creating monumental works in glass. Born in 1950, Kelly Cannell is emerging as a prominent Coast Salish artist from Coast Salish artist Susan Point was born in British Columbia, on April 5, of British Columbia, Susan began to investigate traditional Coast Salish art. Susan Point O.C., DFA., RCA., tupuericultura.com () is a descendant of the Musqueam people; she is the great, great, granddaughter of chief Capilano. Musqueam. Salish artist Susan Point has immersed herself in the study of traditional Coast Salish art and culture. Her striking and distinctive art from jewellery in precious . When Coast Salish artist Susan Point was getting her start back in the '80s, galleries were not interested in her work with glass. They said it wasn't a native. Native American Salish artist Susan Point did not take up art until she was in her 30s. She says: Coast Salish art is relatively unknown to most people today as it. Susan A. Point is a Coast Salish native artist. She was born in and lives in Vancouver BC, Canada. Susan has immersed herself in a study of traditional. Different Perspective limited edition print by Coast Salish artist Susan Point Susan Point has emerged as one of the foremost First Nations artists in Canada. . Susan Point - Coast Salish artist. Salish artist Susan Point is one of the most widely known and celebrated artists working on the coast today. Born in 1950, she. Musqueam artist Susan Point's work is deeply rooted in her Coast Salish roots. But she is equally dedicated to a contemporary practice using. Susan Point: Spindle Whorl // February 18 May 28, Serigraphs by Susan Point, Coast Salish Artist at the Museum of Anthropology, the. Born in 1950, Susan Point is a Coast Salish artist from the Musqueam First Nation in Vancouver, B.C. Susan learned the traditional values of her culture and the. Reflection of the Sockeye People, Susan A. Point, Point joined a small group of Coast Salish artists, including Stan Greene and Rod Modeste, who. and Wide-ranging Oeuvre of Coast Salish Culture. Deer Lake Art Gallery are Honored to Feature. Musqueam Artist. Susan Point. May 5 June 2, This can be attributed in some part to the highly private and sacred nature of traditional Coast Salish art forms. Susan Point's Flight, at left, is the Susan Point's Flight, at left, is the world's largest Coast Salish spindle whorl and is permanently. Protect and Restore (State I) by Susan Point, Coast Salish (Musqueam) artist. Find this Susan A. Point is a Coast Salish artist from Musqueam, a First Nation in.